Dear John:

I somehow feel that I have written this letter before. It went like this. "I'm sorry you couldn't make it but you weren't really missed because your alternate acquitted himself superbly!"

More truthfully--you were missed but Bob Gates did an absolutely first-rate job. Everyone--and I mean everyone--enjoyed his presentation. Many, many thanks on behalf of our entire membership for arranging for him to appear in your place.

Kindest personal regards,

John E. Morrison, Jr.
Executive Vice President
